Keynote Speakers:

Mary and Charlie Kozakiewicz had their daughter Alicia abducted by an Internet Predator when she was just a teen girl. Now, this amazing family speaks out about how it happens, why it happens, and what to do if it happens. This is their real story. They have a passion to help families make sure this does not happen to you.

Breakout Sessions:

Dorn Checkley: Adults

Director of Pittsburgh Coalition Against Pornography

"Could cyberporn turn someone in your family into the next feature on Dateline TV? Learn what can you do to protect your family from pornography ..."

Ken Rochford: Grades 9-12

Special Agent, Department of Homeland Security

This is the technological generation. They live in a world where the internet fits in the palm of their hand. These students will learn how to navigate such a responsibility safely.

Alicia Kozakiewicz: Grades 7-8

A Once Teen Victim of an Internet Predator

Sometimes young people think they are more invincible than they truly are... Alicia will be helping this age group to recognize how they can stay safe in the dangerous world we live in.

Rhonda Rearick: Grades 5-6

Officer, Cranberry Police Department

-My space, Facebook, Chat Rooms, and Cell Phones are fun and exciting. But like every great tool, we need to learn how to use them responsibly. Let's learn how to use technology in a safe way together.
